Happy Halloween!

THE HALLOWEEN HISTORY

Halloween is a very old festival that comes from the Celts. The Celts believed that the 31st of October was the end of the year; they thought in that night all the horrible creatures from the hell came to the earth. The Celts were very scared and started to dress up as horrible creatures in order to avoid the real ones. Nowadays Halloween is real fun both for children and adults. Children dress up as ghosts, witches, skeletons, monsters, etc. and go from house to house asking for “trick or treat”. They usually bring with them the Jack o’ Lantern, a big orange pumpkin with carved mouth, eyes and nose and a candle inside.

Read the sentences and say if they are true (T) or false (F)

- The festivity of Halloween becomes from the Saxons
- The 31st October was the end of the year for the Celts
- The Celts had fun the 31st October night
- Jack o’ Lantern is the name of a bat
- Children dress up as horrible creatures
- Only adults go from house to house asking for trick or treat
- Usually the pumpkins are red
- A bat is a symbol of Halloween
- Children have fun on Halloween night
