

Eternal Flame – The Bangles

This was a huge hit for the Bangles in 1989, going to Number One in the UK and American charts. It was inspired by two eternal flames, one in a synagogue in Palm Springs and the second in Graceland, Memphis, to Elvis Presley. A cover version by Atomic Kitten reached Number One in the UK in 2001

1) Look at the pictures and write the correct word under each one

dreaming – eyes – flame – hand – heart – pain – rain – sleeping - sun

2) Listen to the song, and write the number of times you hear each word.

3) Complete the lyrics (... are from exercise 1, _____ from the box below)

Verse 1

_____ your, give me your, darling
 Do you feel my beating?
 Do you _____?
 Do you feel the same, _____ only?
 _____ burning, an eternal

Open / Close

remember / understand am I / are you
 Is this / Is that

Verse 2

I believe it's meant _____, darling
 I watch you when _____ You belong with me
 Do you feel the same, _____ only?
 _____ burning, an eternal

to be / not to be I am / you are

am I / are you
 Is this / Is that

Verse 3

Say _____, shines through the
 A whole life so lonely
 And then you come and ease the I _____ lose this feeling, oh.

my name / your name

don't like / don't want

Repeat Verse 3, then repeat Verse 1 to fade